Movement Based Social Skills Program for Children with Autism

Program Goal:
To promote healthy body and mind of children with autism age 5-14 years through gross motor and social skill development

Program Objectives:
• To develop motor & social skills
• To improve self-esteem
• To develop self-regulation
• To provide successful learning experiences

Time: Mon & Wed 4:15–5:30p.m. (*Parents can drop their children off any time after 3:30 p.m.) for 8 weeks
Start Date: Feb 13th, 2017
End Date: April 17th, 2017
*No sessions on Feb 20th, March 27th & 29th
Location: Pomeroy Recreation & Rehabilitation Center. 207 Skyline Blvd, San Francisco, CA 94132

Important Information:
1. Program participant registration will be closed on January 13th, 2017. Please contact Mr. Allen Player at aplayer@prrcsf.org for registration
2. Questions regarding the program: Dr. Jihyun Lee at jhlee@sfsu.edu
3. This is a research-based program and your child’s identity will NOT be revealed in any publications resulting from this study
   • You can opt in by completing some forms and will receive your child’s gross motor assessment results and a gift card upon completion of the study
   • You can opt out and your child still can participate in the program
4. Parents/guardians are welcome to participate in the program