

KINESIOLOGY SF SCHOLARS PROGRAM

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Kinesiology SF State Scholars Program is designed for exceptional undergraduate students in Kinesiology that would like to complete both their undergraduate and Master's degrees in a shortened time frame (5-5 1/2 years). The program provides an excellent opportunity for students to further enhance their knowledge base and academic skills in the field of Kinesiology while reducing the overall cost of the graduate degree. It also allows students to develop more competitive applications to doctoral programs (e.g. Physical Therapy, Medicine, Kinesiology) and improve their employment opportunities. Students receive specialized advising from a faculty mentor as well as extended research experience in the student's area of interest.

APPLICATION PROCESS

To be considered for admission, students must be a declared Kinesiology major and have received:
